ACCOMODATION:

Mfuwe Lodge: a luxurious lodge situated INSIDE the South Luangwaa National Park, Zambia. It is one of only 2 permanent lodges inside the National Park. Extensive game viewing by vehicle. The lodge is sandwiched between 2 lagoons, which provide the opportunity for large amounts of game to be viewed from each chalets private decks, well appointed chalets – each with en-suite facilities, hot and cold running water and electricity.

Bush Camps:

South of Mfuwe Lodge, in a wild and remote area away from all the camps, are four small bush camps. You will stay at two of these remote camps on the shorter tour and four of them on the long tour

Chindeni is one of the Luangwa's most luxurious. 4 impressive tents open air central-dining/bar area on wooden decking overlooking the permanent Chayumba Lagoon. The lagoon attracts a large variety of game including elephants which are a delight to watch as they drink and the little ones play in the water.

Chamilandu is near by. The new chalets are raised on timber platforms overlooking the river-you can wake up and watch the sunrise from your bed.

Bilimungwe has a central open sided bar/dining area on wooden decking under the shade of huge old mahogany trees. It overlooks a permanent waterhole where there have been impressive sightings-elephant, buffalo and giraffe (to name a few) only meters from your dining table.

Kapamba the newest camp is the southernmost. It is in keeping with traditional bushcamps. Being remote and unspoilt, it still has the amenities such as hot and cold running water, electricity and open air bathrooms. All the chalets are set on the banks of the beautiful clear waters of the Kapamba river.

All of the lodges have en-suite flush toilets and hot water showers.

Kapamba has a huge stone bath looking out on the river.

Kuyenda is the simplest, with traditional reed-and-thatch bungalows. It is a classic bush camp situated between two permanent waterholes where the animals come to drink- the perfect place to relax and watch the game going by. This camp also boast as the manager/guide Phil Berry, who has the top reputation as a guide.
